Holiday Lecture Series Special: $25.00 for all three 2021 Zoom classes

Call SCC weekdays at 563-441-4100 to register for all three or individual classes.

Jan 13 EICC/SCC When Sunday Came to Town: Billy Sunday and the Saloon Keepers of Muscatine, Iowa is a presentation about a period in American history when communities underwent dramatic and sometimes violent struggles over saloons and alcohol. In 1907 the most famous itinerant preacher in America, Billy Sunday, descended on Muscatine for a five-week revival in which he daily lambasted the saloon and saloonkeepers. Muscatine had a large working-class population and quite a few saloons and saloonkeepers. Their patrons did not take Sunday's visit well. This presentation will explore the drama that unfolded in Muscatine as a result and will consider larger issues that were playing out across the nation. 11:30am - 1:00pm; $10.00; Class ID: 13881

Feb 11 All Iowa Reads Book Review - "Little Faith" by Nickolas Butler. All Iowa Reads is coordinated by the Center for the Book, a program of the State Library of Iowa with the mission to stimulate public interest in books, reading, literacy and libraries. 11:30am - 1:00pm; $10.00; Class ID: 13880

Mar 23 Betty Crocker and her Cookbook that Changed How America Cooks - In 1950, Betty Crocker's new picture cookbook hit the shelves, with sales that rivaled that of another big book, The Bible. To date, it has sold more than 75 million copies. Created in 1921 by a flour company, Betty Crocker became the most trusted advisor to American cooks. This fun illustrated lecture by historian Leslie Goddard, Ph. D., looks at how Betty Crocker was invented, why her cookbook has endured and what makes her so iconic. It's perfect if you're feeling like cooking up some nostalgia. This lecture is funded by a Quad City Plus 60 grant. 11:30am -1:00pm; $10.00 Class ID: 13330

Genesis Health

Because of the pandemic and in lieu of the Healthy Habits lunch program, Genesis Health System is periodically providing short videos on current health topics for viewing on the Internet. Videos available to date include: Maintaining Medical Appointments, Medicare Open Enrollment Information, and the most recent video titled: Stay connected and safe during the holidays - YouTube. The videos are accessible by clicking the web links in the Genesis Health announcement on the Club's home page at www.qcplus60.com.
